We will long cherish the memories of this school year, 1957-1958. Our hopes and dreams, our successes and disappointments all have their place in our lives. Each month is significant. In this Colophon are featured the events of the school year according to these months. It is our hope that you will always find happiness in the memories of these adventures of your youth.

Thema,
May you have the best of everything the world has to offer. You deserve it. I'll never forget your quiet personality & wonderful ways. L. M. A.

MISS EMILY TRIMMER

Dedication

To you, Miss Emily Trimmer, we proudly dedicate this, the 1958 Colophon. Your influence and teaching will help us on through life for we will be guided by the standards you have set for us. You have tried to train every student to be ready for the demands of life—to meet every challenge and every opportunity—and to take advantage of them. We shall reap the benefits of your unceasing prodding and encouragement and untiring efforts. We are grateful to you, Miss Trimmer!

Miss Trimmer received her A.B. Degree from Wellesey College in Massachusetts and did graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania. She has greatly enriched her English classes through a summer course at Oxford and her extensive travel of the United States, Canada, and Europe. She is a past president and officer of the American Association of University Women and is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, International Honorary Teachers Organization. As a Senior High School Guidance Counselor, Miss Trimmer has established a close association with each student.

At times our seemingly unappreciative attitudes may be discouraging to you, Miss Trimmer. Forgive us, please. For through the principles you have instilled in us, we hope that as adults we may be able to fulfill your dreams.

RESIGNATION

MISS ANNE JONES

In her years at Meyers, Miss Anne Jones has won a very special place in the hearts of her students. Her lilt and animation have made her classes both cheerful and inspiring. Her seriousness about the day by day living everyone experiences has made many people aware of all the future holds and the joy we may find in simple things.

Miss Jones received her education at Bloomsburg State Teachers College and The Pennsylvania State University. At Buffalo State Teachers College she prepared for her very special field, teaching and guiding the Sight Saving Class.

Her teaching career began in Plymouth High School, followed by some years at the Wilkes-Barre Continuation School, and she was appointed to the Meyers faculty in 1940.

One of this lady's many talents is in dramatics and public speaking. In this field she has willingly given her time and energies to direct plays and chapel programs and to assist others who came to depend upon her skill.

Miss Jones, your warm, gracious manner and dainty, pixie expressions will remain with us along with your instruction and example. Have fun away from Meyers and remember us, now and then, as we shall happily remember you.

A FACULTY MEETING

Retirements

MISS IONA BRELSFORD

Miss Brelsford has won the respect and admiration of teachers and students alike with her sincere interest and devotion to her work. Her eagerness to help, her emphasis on order, and her keen sense of humor have highlighted her history and Latin classes.

Miss Brelsford was graduated from Syracuse University where she was a member of the Alpha Chi Omega Sorority. She also attended two summer sessions at Columbia University. Before coming to Meyers, Miss Brelsford taught at Forty Fort High School and Kingston High School.

Skilled in the art of horseback riding, Miss Brelsford sponsored the Equestrian Club at Meyers for many years. She is especially endeared to the hearts of Seniors, for it has always been her pride to have a Senior Homeroom. Beloved by her students for her dignity and vitality, Miss Brelsford will long be remembered.

MRS. ANNA D. HARRISON

We wish to express our appreciation to our teacher and friend, Mrs. Anna D. Harrison for her tireless efforts, her true understanding and her infinite patience. As a Latin, German, and English teacher, Mrs. Harrison has devoted herself to her students, she has been our Mother-away-from-home.

Upon graduation from Bucknell University, Mrs. Harrison taught at Luzerne High School, Forty Fort High School, and Kingston High School before coming to Meyers. Her avocation has been her daughter, Janet, of whom she is justly proud. Perhaps this has given her the deep insight to understand our problems. Her judgment is good, and her decisions have always been fair and impartial. She has given to us so much above and beyond the call of duty.

In Memory

THOMAS J. HARKINS

We pay tribute to a man who captured the hearts of all who were privileged to know him. Mr. Thomas J. Harkins, beloved and esteemed teacher, has been with Meyers since it opened in 1930. After his early education in the Wilkes-Barre City Schools, he procured his B.S. degree from the University of Scranton, did post-graduate work at Bucknell University, and received his Master's degree from New York University. His teaching career was interrupted by the Second World War during which time he served at a Lt. Commander in the Naval Air Corps. Few know of his courageous service at Banana River, and in the Pacific Theater.

To you, Mr. Harkins, we give our heartfelt thanks for your friendship and teaching. It is with deep and sincere emotion that we cherish your memory. We recall the times you stopped in the hall to chat with us; we remember how you chuckled when you made us blush, how we would squirm when you teased. We shall never forget your twinkling scoldings when we broke a test tube, your smirk when we failed a recitation, your methodical calculations of overdue homework, your once-repeated test questions. We admire your unfailing sense of duty, your proficient system, your seemingly infinite knowledge, your business-like explanations. We marvel at the way you drew the supreme effort from every student. We can hear the pleasing timbre of your voice, and your logical, concise reasoning. Mr. Harkins, you are our ideal of a teacher. We are proud to have studied with you.

Lots of luck and success in all you do. Have fun in your remaining school years. Good luck in the Modern Choir. Stay as nice and sweet as you are and you are sure to succeed.
Love,
Janet

February

Thelma,
The best of everything the world has to offer to a sweet sister. Good luck in whatever you decide to do. Have fun in your Sophmore year + your thru years at Meyers. That's because you only get out of school what you put into it. Success in all you do, and enjoy yourself.
Love,
Audrey

SENIORS

ALBERT BLEESE

Did you ever hear of anyone who could procrastinate and yet get everything done? In fact he is so logical and cautious he can even give you a good reason for it. Take note, ladies,—this is a man who values his opportunities, and you may as well be one of the best.

"He is immortal till his work is done."

STELLA ALEXION

Look forward to just about everything that is wonderful in life and you may achieve a very large measure of it. This gal has talents galore and startling tastes, and optimism and drive and is a genuine romanticist. Intuition blooms and perception flowers and off she goes on another dream cycle.

"Unconcerned she stands secure."

RUTH ANN BOOROM

Gregarious is the word that applies to this gay beauty, for she is in everything, joins everything, exerts herself everywhere. She is artistic and romantic, friendly and affectionate, and when she settles down to the common sense and practical it is just another evidence to prove it all.

"The observed of all observers."

ELEANOR ASTON

How auburn hair and velvet eyes do set off the picture! And for such a quiet person she surely rounds out her many friendships, and cooperates in half a hundred interesting ways. How about that natural giggle to set everything off?

"To be strong is to be happy"

DELORES BOREK

All who know Delores are sure to benefit from her enthusiasm and friendliness. Her eagerness, dependability, and sense of humor make her a big asset not only in her activities but in the classroom as well.

"Bashful sincerity and comely love."

MARY BAUMAN

One of Meyers friendlinest seniors, this attractive girl is a commercial student with plans for a stenography career. A hockey player, stunning strutter, and an honor student, she is an enthusiastic participant in many activities. Her pixie face, and light brown hair accent an enviable figure and a wardrobe of fashion.

"She has never been in love, or in hate."

LOIS BRELSFORD

Certain things seem much more essential to this gal than others, and her desire to be with people and to get to know them will be a good training for her work in life we hope. As one of our majorettes, she surely contributed to the extra-curricular life at Meyers.

"Speak not at all, in any wise, till you have somewhat to speak."

PHOEBE BENSON

She wonders sometimes why everything has to be faced in such a practical way, but that's the way she is. And when you add the sympathetic touch, the cooperative attitude, the ever-friendly smile, we think the world has something pretty special in this young lady.

"Advice is a sacred thing."

GLORIA JEAN BRONACK

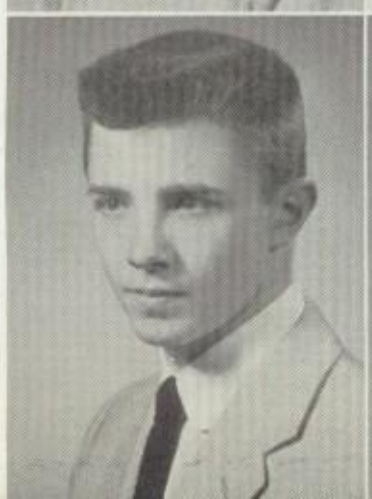
Anyone who holds the ideals Gloria has and the tenacity and logic to gain them is surely going to be a success. With Gloria others come first. We wish her plenty of good fortune if she attempts to realize her fondest ambition that of becoming a medical doctor, and good luck along the line.

"Speech is silver, silence is golden"

DELMAR BESECKER

This fellow likes his friends and they like him. When harmonizing the conflict between his heart and his head, he will go far. We admire his artistry in changing moods, the romance of his interest in fact, and the care he shows not to be too critical in his competition —and what a terrific Steve in the Senior Play.

"Think all you speak; but speak not all you think."



ROXANNE BROWN

Wherever there is gaiety and fun, this attractive, blonde senior is sure to be found. A natural desire to help, which is concomitant with a quaint, innocent smile, will be a big factor in her success as a nurse.

"Beautiful in form and feature."

VERONICA BROZOSKI

Career first—then marriage, she says, and what more could any girl want? Never was anyone more faithful to a task she undertakes, and never anyone more appreciative of every good thing people do for her. She likes pretty things, and yet is intensely practical about them, and with such logic displayed we feel sure of her success.

"To know how to hide one's ability is great skill."

HARVEY BURDEN

Good looks and a warm happy smile mark Harvey. Whether in the classroom on or the wrestling mat, Harvey is sure to do his utmost. The best of luck to a terrific guy.

"He that surpasses or subdues mankind must look down on the hate of those below."

ROSE BUTLER

Everyone likes Rose's careful, practical, and logical ways. In spite of and shortcomings in size we are sure that Rose will succeed due to her optimism and friendliness. She is truly a valuable friend in every sense of the word, and we are glad to know her.

"One good turn deserves another."

LEON CHARNESKI

The fellow who did not go out for sports and now wishes he had can spend a lot of leisure in the personal pastimes such as archery and fishing with real satisfaction. This is a careful man, and if he tends to put off getting started on things, at least he does not stop the doing until everything is done.

"We have each one our own destiny."

RONALD COLARUSSO

As president of the Kegian Society, Ron has been one of our leading seniors. While the library hasn't been claiming his time, this handsome senior has been utilizing it either on the gridiron or in preparing for his fond ambition, pharmacy, and in squiring the ladies, many ladies!

"Do as I say, not as I do."

PHILLIP CONSTANTINE

This careful and practical senior is one of the friendliest persons you would ever want to meet. He is apt to put things off a little but is nevertheless very logical and co-operative. Expecting to enter the Navy upon graduation, Phil is certainly going to show some good abilities which haven't been strongly evident while at Meyers.

"One cannot know everything."

JULIUS COPLAN

Julius, though inclined to be a little too cautious, is one of the most imaginative and enthusiastic seniors in our class. But tell us, sir, is an attraction to blondes a habit? Whatever he intends to become, he has the ability to fulfill it.

"Amiable to a fault."

MOLLY CORBETT

Colophon Editor-in-Chief

List all the dignified adjectives like tall and stately, and add a few like gay and humorous, and remember she is always out for a lark and also always serious. A real contrast in characteristics is this young lady. She goes out for athletics and dramatics. She never fails in her duty and worries happily as she undertakes too many things, and rises from the depths of "the blues" to the heights of achievement. We bestow a laurel wreath of honor.

"Quick, ingenious, capable and brave."

BETSY COURY

Charming with a bubbling personality best describes our Betsy. Betsy is great in everything she attempts—hockey, basketball, student council, etc. Her good looks, friendliness, and pep make her a hit with everyone. We know that she will find continued happiness in the years to come.

"A life that leads melodious days."

MARILYN COWELL

As a majorette and this year's treasurer of the Y-Teens, Marilyn was just tops. Nursing is certainly going to benefit from her eagerness and keen desire to do her share in everything she undertakes. If the past is a forecast of the future she will take some part in a great variety of things.

"She can because she thinks she can."

CHARLES CRAZE

This happy-go-lucky Senior is one of the leading members of our class. His abilities are evident on the basketball court, the football field, and also in the Kegian Society. Success may surely come, but only after some good hard work.

"When honor comes to you, be ready to take it."

JOSEPH CUNNINGHAM

Joe has moods, and would like to change his location and move around—going into the Air Force may do just that. He is aware of so much around him that we predict his future will not be lacking in variety.

"A good man never dies."

EDITH DAVIS

Here comes a future air force hostess and her careful plans include a wide range of practical and logical experiments in living. She is surely a young lady interested in essentials and what could lift her sometimes rather low spirited moments more than a good chatty friendship!

"True love never runs smooth."

ESTHER DAVIS

She has an artistic vein that leads her to do fine things. In fact she was on of the winners of the Seventeen Magazine table setting contest. A very well balanced young lady like this will grace the Air Force and we are all for her on her way to success.

"Chords that vibrate sweetest pleasure."

WAYNE DAVIS

Here is a man who wishes often that he had done something else than the thing he is engaged in at the time. He even breaks a rule now and then just to vary the monotony of everything. But his friendly attitude saves the day and saves him, and gives him his deserved popularity.

"Action is the proper fruit of knowledge."

CHARLOTTE DIMAGGIO

Optimism personified, and with such a practical side to it all that we wonder whether sympathy isn't one of life's greatest virtues. This gal goes in for a variety program in her social contacts and what a whiz she is in athletics of all varieties.

"She hath a heart as sound as a bell."

JOAN DREY

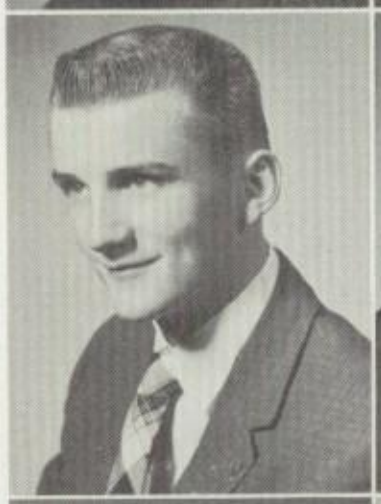
This sweet, attractive miss is one of the leaders of our class. As Secretary of our class she has shown that she is more than worthy of our confidence and trust. We all realize that Joanie has been a great asset to Meyers,—after all, she is Queen of Hearts!

"She has many nameless virtues—and beauty withal."

JAMES DUNN

Jim is one of the most changeable members of our class. He's one of the few who finishes almost everything he attempts. Pharmacy is possibly to be Jim's career and we all know that if he displays the persistence and ambition which he has so far, he's bound to succeed. He can fill prescriptions of all kinds, and we guarantee to like them all.

"The trouble is small, the fun is great."



CHARLES EASTWOOD

Charlie is one of those people you can't help liking. While a little unpredictable in his moods, he is the type of fellow you can ask to do just anything, and go away sure that he can, and that he will do the best job you could possibly want.

"Deeds, not words, shall speak for me."

DAVID EDWARDS

As President of our class Dave has proven himself to be a man among men. His talents are well expressed on the gridiron and in the classroom, in the Student Council as VP, and as Manager of the Stage Club. We know that Dave is bound to succeed because of his ambition, initiative, and perseverance.

"One of the best by common consent."

ARTHUR EVANS

Hardly ever does one find Art not in a happy mood. Continually he's bringing merriment and happiness to others through his antics and sense of humor. In athletic, social, and scholastic events Art has proven himself to be a jack-of-all-trades, and the class responded by electing him their Treasurer.

"A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men."

GEORGE EVANS

George's ambition is to enter the Air Force and there help others with his talents and knowledge of machinery. Although somewhat reserved and reticent, George is nevertheless one of the most friendly and practical members of our class. Here's to you,—may we meet often in the future.

"Great hopes make great men."

KAY FARR

Attractive, sincere, and talkative describes our Kay. As a member of the F.T.A. and Ushers Club Kay has shown that she is quite reliable and dependable. We hope that wherever she does will merit her friendliness and understanding, for she belongs to practically everything and takes a turn at it all, with promising results.

"A harmless thunderbolt."

SALLY FELL

Sally has always had a keen desire to help others. This is evident in her having chosen nursing as her career. Her quiet, calm mannerisms have captured many friends. Good fortune to a wonderful gal!

"A light heart lives long."

EVELYN FETTEROLF

Evelyn is a mixture of enthusiastic spirit and quiet determination. As a member of the Modern Choir and the Elmprint typing staff, she has contributed much to Meyers. Her unlimited abilities will carry her far down the road toward success.

A girl who relies upon herself."

MARTHA GALLAGHER

Colophon Editor-in-Chief

If Martha were quintuplets we still would not see how she could do everything, from Colophon and Student Council President to hockey and water ballet, making stops for the Play and the Kegians, and taking in a dozen other activities on the way. She plans her time, procrastinates a little, and persists a lot, as her practical habits dictate. She is cooperative and friendly, —in short, a Meyers prize package.

"She can tackle anything, and will."

HERBERT FLYTE

When it comes to mechanics, Herb is just about a genius. His crazy antics and talkative nature make him liked by everyone. Herb expects to work for the telephone company someday where we know he's bound to succeed in a way probably surprising to himself as well as his employer. When his enthusiasm starts no one knows where it will end.

"I'll find a way."

FRANK GALLE

This big, husky fellow is one of the nicest persons you could ever meet. He never stops anything until he is finished and is one of the most ambitious of our classmates. He is a whiz at drafting and expects to pursue his future work in this field.

"Justice for all."

KENNETH FOX

This logical and practical fellow is known for his friendliness and persistency. He has the photographer's mind and loves to take pictures of pretty girls, —is this the romantic side we hear about? Ken is college bound and we wish him the best of luck.

"Ideas control the world."

JOSEPH GATES

You might think this big handsome bruiser would be more adept on the football team yet he seems to have found his talent in working with his hands. Joe is very careful and particular and loves hunting and guns. He expects to further his training in the Air Force and then enter his chosen field.

"To spend too much time in studies is sloth."

BRUCE FRALEY

Bruce seems to be on the reserved and sensitive side, yet all who know him regard him as a terrific guy. Chess, fishing, and hunting are Bruce's chief hobbies. Electronics expects to be his future and we know he will succeed,— for when he puts forth his best it is very good indeed.

"Studies serve for delight, for ornament, and for ability."

PATRICIA GILDEA

Pat is one of the best students in our class and also one of our most friendly classmates. She is a very logical person and rather competitive. Next year she expects to go into nursing where she is bound to do well, as she would in anything.

"Sweet eyes, soft glances."

BARBARA FRANK

Barbara is a very affectionate gal whom you can always depend on. Next year, she will attend Albert Einstein Medical Center where we know she's bound to do well. We wish her the best of good fortune in her chosen field.

"The very pink of perfection."

RAY GILLIGAN

Now here is one of those daring and dashing knights of old come to life. Ray is very active in all for Meyers. Though sometimes quick tempered, he is as a rule very practical and optimistic. Business expects to be his career.

"If it please you, friend, I am content."

DONALD FREED

A star with the All Stars, Don has a host of fans and friends. He is one of the boys who can do just about anything. With this slow-dawning smile and wavy blond hair, he'll sing his way to success.

"His smile is like the dawn."

GWENN GOULD

Here is a talented young lady if we ever saw one. She is very talkative and clever and expects to be an elementary school teacher. We know schools will improve and students go up and up when she gets behind the teacher's desk.

"Studious of elegance and ease."

KAREN HAAS

This friendly and enthusiastic gal expects to do many things in the future, most of which we know she will someday realize. Very practical and logical Karen has a host of friends, and all wish her the best.

"Sweet as the breath of morn."

BERNARD JAY HERMAN

Bernie is very gregarious and interested in people. He expects to enter business upon being graduated from college. This is a field in which he's sure to make good. Though somewhat cautious, he is very practical and has what it takes for a great future.

"Light heart, light foot, light food, and light slumber."

CYNTHIA ANN HAGLEY

Cynthia is one of those few who see that everything they do, they do well. Inclined to be cautious and reticent, she is nevertheless a hard-working member of over a half dozen organizations including the Kegian Society, the Modern Choir and the Senior Orchestra, and as a student director for the Senior Play.

"Me heart is ever at your service."

BEVERLY HERTZ

Bev is one of those you can't help liking. While often finding it difficult to decide what to do, she is on the other hand versatile and very imaginative. She will make a good secretary for some lucky person.

"Make a virtue of necessity."

GLORIA HARBAY

If optisism can do for others what it does for her, let's all have some. This peppy individual has imagination, can do a wide variety of interesting things, and also revels in romance. We prophecy a really wonderful future.

"Wonder is involuntary praise."

RICHARD HUTCHINS

Colophon Editor-in-Chief

Luckily this man's intended iron control has cracked in places, and the warmth and congeniality he has tried to conceal show through. He is a VP of his class, an editor of the Colophon and a member of many organizations. He was one of the Famous Five MC's. His future seems to be planned to include study and more study. Girls, we present a real prize—if you can win him.

"Whatever he does, he does it in causes just."

BONNIE HARRIS

Enthusiasm and a real interest in a great variety of things guides her ways. This ambitious young lady is reserved even reticent on some matters, and competitive and vital on others. She is a real romantic at heart, and we look for her to enhance any environment in which she may be.

"A lion among men; a lamb elsewhere."

JOSEPH JACOBS

Joe has one of the world's biggest hearts. He is very affectionate and liked by just about everybody. Joe is extremely easy-going, but practical and logical and we all know that he will do something deserving of his abilities.

"He eats well, and he drinks well, and he sleeps well, but that's all."

BETTE HELT

If her heart and head do conflict she can always change her mood and suit her affairs to what is needed. This gal is a ready and agreeable talker, her charming smile is warm and sensitive. We are all for her idea of being a teacher; she will be a good one, as she was a good student director for the Senior Play.

"A good heart is worth more than gold."

FRANK A. JESCAVAGE

Here is a man of parts. His slow motion responses should not blind you to his rapid method of coming to conclusions. He is pleasant and can be made to exert himself—we have seen it done. But "easy does it" can over rule sometimes.

"He is the half part of a blessed man."

MARJORIE HENNEY

Here is a lady of parts, our feminine VP, and she plans a life of service as a youth leader after college. Just now who knows what she may do, for almost all talents are hers, along with happy popularity.

"A picture of a poem without words."

ARTHUR JONES

A good fellow who is reticent to a fault. We could hardly find out anything about him. We know he is friendly. He is not moody, not too much interested in people, and far from changeable. The best to him!

"Men, like bullets, go farthest when they are smoothest."

CHARLES JONES

A demon on the basketball court; that's Chuck. Tall and dark hair are two features that distinguish his stature. Very rarely does one see him with a look of anger. He is a person who uses a sincere smile as his recipe for friendship.

"He has occasional flashes of silence that make his conversation perfectly delightful."

PATRICIA KLIMCHAK

Pat is very practical and careful plus being interested in many things. Though inclined to be on the cautious side, she is nevertheless very logical and likes pretty things. About her future she is somewhat undecided, yet with her friendly nature we know she will amount to something.

"Mindful and faithful."

EDWARD JONES

For a man who has such a broad grin so often, we are surprised to find him really pessimistic, moody and generally ready to think the worst of himself and everything else. But we think the smile will win out.

"Action is eloquence."

RUTH KNORR

Ruthie is very friendly and loves to meet people. She has many interests and in each she strives to do her best. Though sometimes pessimistic, this trait is well over-shadowed by her persistency and co-operation. We wish her the best.

"Beauty is engendered of modesty."

JAMES JONES

A steady and purposeful man like this has his critical side of course, and he might even be quick tempered at times. He sticks to things tenaciously, and finds his real interest tends to the real essentials. A good future, fellow.

"There is nothing more to say."

JOSEPH KOFCHAK

Joe is very interested in auto mechanics: expects to make it his career. Sometimes he has changeable moods but most of the time he is extra-practical and careful. The service, being near at hand, is where he will make use of his well-leashed abilities.

"A schoolboy's tale, the wonder of an hour."

MICHAEL KABAT

If all the nice people he knows last as his friends all his life he will be a rich man. We predict that their number will increase. His perceptions are quick, and intuition plays a large part in his life. If he becomes a noted dental surgeon make an early appointment. His office will be crowded.

"There can be no friendship where there can be no freedom."

JOHN KOTCH

This ambitious fellow has a keen desire to get ahead. He will use all of his qualities in attempting to achieve his goals. John is inclined to be cautious and keeps to himself yet is very efficient and well liked by all.

"Rich in good works."

RITA KARPOWICH

When one has a hobby like hers it illuminates many an hour and makes a center for real doing. She likes pretty things; and likes both music and art. With her ardent interest in everything and everybody we think the future will be bright.

"Perpetually in motion."

LOUISE KRAUSS

Now here's a lady of vast potentialities and talents. As co-editor of the Elmprint, cheer leader, and head bank cashier, Louise has proved herself both dependable and resourceful. Physical therapy will probably be her career and in this field she will express her optimism and desire to help people.

"Too great refinement is false delicacy and true delicacy is solid refinement."

ELNORA KEIL

This young lady can change her mind as easily as one can change a coat, and keep talking and busy all the time she is doing it. Affection she lavishes. Great care she bestows on all essentials. She will get there, and we are glad we know her.

"A ministering angel."

FRANCIS KUMOR

Francis is noticeably interested in music and is a hard-working member of the band. Though apt to procrastinate, he is nevertheless persistent and gets things done. His intuition and perception will be a great asset to him in the future.

"Honors change not men's manners."

MELANIE KUPRIONAS

This is a very ambitious young charmer and persistent as any we know. She gets on with things in a most cooperative manner. We admire her attitude toward things and the balance she maintains. She's a lady we are all glad to know.

"A true and constant friend."

DELORES LINKIEWICZ

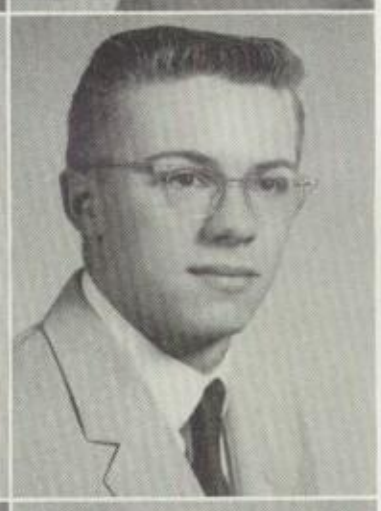
Intent on becoming an air hostess, Delores will someday realize this ambition. She is very practical and friendly. Although not too active, she is nevertheless interesting and liked by all her friends. Good fortune to a great kid.

"She'll find a way."

MAURICE LA BELLA

Maurice is somewhat reserved and extremely interested in people. He loves shops and the "auto" is his second home. To all he appears cooperative and sympathetic and we hope that he will have a successful career.

"Can one desire too much of a good thing."



ALLEN LITTLEFIELD

When it comes to art work, Alan is simply marvelous. He expects to be a professional draftsman. Though once in a while quick tempered, he is quite logical and extremely interested in essentials. Our best to a likeable classmate.

"The perfection of art is to conceal art."

JOHN LALLY

Here is a fellow with a much finer mind than he likes to acknowledge. He would rather have you concentrate on his inability to save money than on his secret though persistent intention to someday get exactly his own way. He would even talk his way out of a problem if getting the answer required much work—but we admire his versatile imagination.

"The multitude is always in the wrong."

ANN LOUGHRAN

A flare for art, a flashing smile, and a peppy, enthusiastic manner are characteristic of Ann. She is versatile and imaginative, as shown by her many school posters. She plans to enter college where she will study elementary school teaching. An honor student at Meyers, Ann is sure to be successful both in college and in life.

"Strong wills make sound minds."

BARBARA LEAR

Barbara is a very artistic young gal and extremely friendly. She expects to further her education by attending business college where she will pursue her favorite subject, shorthand. Our best to a very optimistic and likeable classmate.

"Thy skin is so ivory, so white

BETSY LYNCH

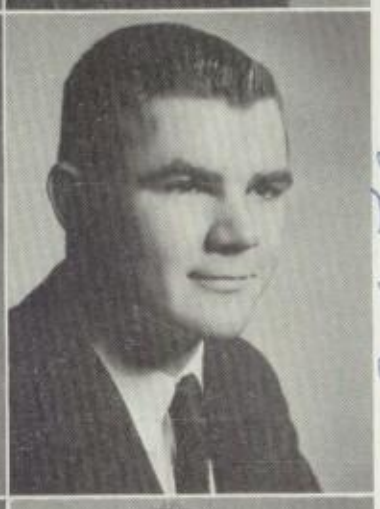
Always a friendly smile and a nice word for everyone. A whiz at typing which is bound to make her a success in business,—that's what she wants to do. Could any boss want anything prettier, neater or nicer in a secretary? And when you know her her good points are so many and so welcome you wish she were twins.

"I do sing because I must."

SHARON LEBOWITZ

Sharon has certainly used every minute of her high school years to great capacity. Continually she is trying to improve herself both in and outside of school. It is her fondest desire to become a medical doctor and in this field we know she will measure up to the best of her abilities.

"A wealth of knowledge."



HENRY LYNN

Henry is well-known for his outstanding ability in both football and baseball. He plans to enter college and prepare for a teaching career. Henry is natural, unaffected, and sincere, as his host of friends indicate. Always willing, ready to help, and enthusiastic, Henry is liked by everyone he meets.

"More enduring than bronze."

JUDY LEWIS

Though somewhat cautious and reticent, Judy is nevertheless very friendly and optimistic. She has several hobbies and in each she trys to excel. The future is broad and will contain many new horizons which she will certainly explore.

"Know thyself."

CAROLE MacDOUGALL

Somewhat sensitive Carole is one of our grandest classmates. She likes Meyers very much and seems to enjoy music. Very talkative and ambitious, Carole is liked by all for her clever, cute and unassuming ways. We wish her the best.

"Judge of taste."

SARA MALKEMES

No one loves pretty things more, and few have as many of them. This graceful lady is a joy to the eye on every occasion. Her friendly attitude is sometimes hidden by a critical frame of mind, but her versatility and imagination should give her encouragement for almost anything she may undertake in the future.

"Education is the apprenticeship of life"

CATHERINE MILLER

Here is that rare feminine individual —a lady who can face the facts. She can do her own evaluating, offer what criticism is needed and still keep her own counsel in most matters. She has ambitions, a love of nice things and a very well balanced attitude. We think she will achieve her goals.

"When what must be given is given willingly the kindness is doubled."

CATHERINE MAROWSKI

She talks and smiles, tries to catch up with all her moods, lets go of her temper and then controls it again. In short she acts like any ambitious, persistent woman who can at least explain herself and knows what she wants to do.

"I'll sigh with you."

PATRICIA MILLER

Pat is tall, blond and talented. What more could anyone want? She wants a lot more, and she will get it. She belongs to so many things, and takes an active part in them, besides getting all her work and play times under control. We would be willing to say she will get whatever she sets out for.

"The tree of knowledge is not that of life."

BETSY JANE MARTIN

All the questions that are going to face this young lady someday, she is beginning to answer now. She can smile in a very friendly fashion and criticize severely in the same moment and yet we like her so much we can take it from her.

"Kindness is wisdom."

RICHARD MILLER

If you saw this man set off to do a job you would know he would approach it with a mixture of practical and artistic ideas, and that the results would be something to be proud of. Just look out, fellow,—someone may talk you into something that will surprise you.

"Slow and steady wins the race."

PATRICIA MARTIN

When this brunette comes your way give her more than a passing look and you will be rewarded. She has friends everywhere and even her rather blue view of life is not pessimistic enough to dim her naturally affectionate nature.

"Character is fate."

MARIE MISEWICH

Marie is noted for her slim figure and attractive smile. Her chief ambition is to be a laboratory technician, a field in which we know she will do well. While sometimes reticent, she is nevertheless very practical and logical. Our best to a terrific classmate!

"To see her is to love her."

JOSEPH MAZULA

When a man keeps everything to himself as Joe feels like doing so much of the time, it hides his really friendly disposition. But when the mood changes the man does too, and practical views of the future are hard to maintain. Lots of all the best of everything, we wish you.

"I shall know if I have rightly advised you."

PEGGY MOONEY

Peggy has a quaint sense of humor and a great personality. She seems to have no decided plans for the future. College is where Peg will make use of her abilities, namely, art, sports, and scholarship. And all the years of the future will be hers when once she makes up her mind about them.

"A wealth of knowledge."

WILLIAM McGUIRE

Here is a man whose muscles and will power as well as brains put him away up there where he wants to be. On the summit anyone is too much exposed to be comfortable, but what is prestige and power if it won't bring compensation. In everyday life, as many another man, how dependent he is upon the feminine influence.

"He is so good, he would pour rose water on a toad."

VIRGINIA MORGAN

Ginny is a prize commercial student and one of the leading ladies of our class. Someday she may be a teacher, a profession which can certainly make use of her abilities. She is inclined to be sensitive but this is more than balanced by her carefulness and practicality.

"Hasten slowly."

JO ANN MOSES

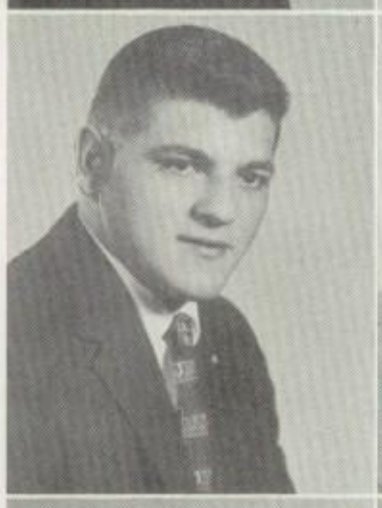
Jo Ann is one of the few who really knows the value of a good education. She appears very tenacious and logical and enjoys meeting people. We know that she will make an excellent secretary for some lucky employer.

"...and so on to a happy ending."

MICHAEL D. MOSES

Now here's a man of vast potentalities. He excels not only on the gridiron but also in the classroom. Mike, though somewhat shy, is a willing and efficient worker. He is going away to school and will certainly live up to his fine record here at Meyers.

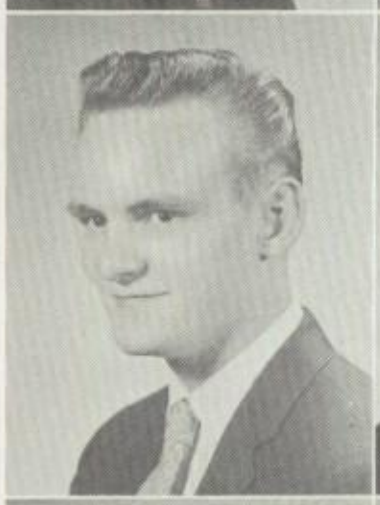
"Men are but children of a larger growth."



JOHN MOYLE

John is very interested in vocational drafting. He is quite artistic and has several hobbies. While not too aggressive, he likes to do things in a quiet, soft-spoken manner. Practical to the limit, we know John is headed down the road to success.

"Young fellows will always be young fellows."



RITA MURPHY

Rita would like someday to be an airline stewardess. She is very ambitious and works hard in both her activities and in the classroom. Though she sometimes is too quick in her actions, she is on the other hand friendly and very interested in people.

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

DELORES NARDONE

Upon graduation Delores is entering college to prepare for secretarial work. She is very talkative, somewhat sensitive and liked by everyone. Although she has not been too active she is nevertheless an efficient student and always realizes her goals.

"With fame, in just proportion, envy grows."

SHARON NEEDLE

Sharon is really adept at "tickling the ivories," but her abilities extend far down many other pursuits including Elmprint, Modern Choir and Meyer's reporter for the Sunday Independent. Talents in variety are hers.

"Many receive advice but only the wise profit by it."

RUTH NEWMAN

Ruthie is one of the best students in our class and a friendly and logical member of any class. She expects to go into education where she is sure to succeed due to her competitive and practical manner. Good fortune to a wonderful kid.

"Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body."

DOROTHY NEYHARD

This affectionate though sensitive senior is one of the most practical members of our class. Dot is tenacious and completes most all that she attempts. Though sometimes cautious she is very competitive and a very likeable classmate.

"Nothing is impossible to a willing heart."

ANGELINE OLIVER

Brown eyes, brown hair, attractive smile conceal her quick temper. Her moods change so easily and so often as she chatters along that we may feel the conflict between head and heart that she faces so often, and forget that she is essentially a careful and practical lady who knows where she is going.

"Beauty is kind as well as generous."

PATRICIA OWENS

Blonde and blue-eyed and undecided about nursing, but we know she has the attitude and ability for success. This lady really scatters her interests and finishes one thing before she starts another. That way gets a lot done, but it also makes a person feel pretty blue sometimes, doesn't it? ?

"No legacy is so rich as honesty."

JOAN PALTANAVICH

Here comes another nurse. Friendly and interested in everybody, she will please her patients as she does her friends by her sympathetic cooperation, and her practical suggestions for their comfort and pleasure. We could not wish success to a nicer girl.

"Simplest of blossoms."

DAVID PETERS

A man of parts, sensitive to the needs of others, interested in them, and always willing to do a service. He has a nice turn of speech, and a well concealed romantic nature, which he did not expect us to detect. Your careful control and reticence is nearly always in place, Dave, but it does slip a little now and then. Anyway you are, we like you.

"Humor has justly been regarded as the finest perfection."

RITA PISANO

This lady is generous and every now and then makes a valiant effort to save money. She sticks to what she starts, and often criticizes others who do not. When she begins her career that friendly interest in people will help her to a real success.

"My favorite temple is an humble heart."

KITSY ROCHE

Kitsy is surprisingly clever and very interested in people. Somewhat competitive she is nonetheless very friendly and intuitive. Art is her favorite subject but she has displayed great potentialities in many other activities.

"Let more like her abound."

DONALD PISSOT

Don is one of those Seniors you never hear much from. He tends to be reserved and interested in facts. He intends to become an accomplished draftsman, an area which he has prepared for while here at Meyers. Lots of success to this friendly and logical classmate.

"To good for great things and too great for good."

FRANK ROLLMAN

Frank is one of the grandest persons you would ever want to meet. He is an asset to any club or activity. Frank is persistent and always continues on till the end. He is sure to succeed because of his friendly and pleasant ways.

"All men are poets at heart."

MARION POWELL

Marion hopes to be a technician, maybe in physiology. She likes science and has several exciting hobbies. Art, majorettes, and social affairs take much of her time, yet she always, due to her persistency, finishes her tasks to the best of her ability.

"She hath a heart as sound as a bell."

RUTH ROSENBLATT

Sweet, charming, practical—that's Ruth. She hopes someday to be a teacher, a field which can certainly make good use of her abilities. Though shy and reserved Ruth is nevertheless one of our most capable and reliable classmates.

"Philosophy, the member of the schools

MARGARET MARY POWELL

Midge has many unusual hobbies and has a great number of friends. She is sometimes moody but is also very practical and romantic. Very charming, Midge is extremely interesting and is liked by all for her pleasant, logical manner.

"A gay soul cannot be still."

JUDITH RUSSEL

Nursing is going to be this friendly and logical Senior's career. She hopes first to go to college, where with her brains and abilities she's bound to do well. Judy, we hope for you the best, realizing that you will accomplish your goals.

"My faith is made perfect in strength."

JANET RINEHIMER

Janet is a very charming classmate and a wizard on the cello. She has several aims for achievement in fields where it takes constant practice for achievement. Tending to be imaginative and enthusiastic, Janet is liked by all of us. The best of good fortune to her.

"Better late than never."

YALE SAGER

As a football manager Yale was always there. As an M.C. he was just tops. Expecting to go into pharmacy, Yale is sure to do his best. Ambitiousness, persistency, and desire mark him as one of our most active Seniors.

"Curiosity is one of the permanent characteristics of a vigorous man."

ELLEN ROBAK

Ellen is a willing worker anywhere, Y-Teens, Sr. Orchestra, etc. She likes science and expects someday to go into nursing. She is always friendly and practical and is truly an asset to Meyers. We are really proud of her; and of the extra fine service she gives to so many of our activities.

"And when like her shall another pass?"

NANCY SCHIFFMAN

As an associate editor of the Elmprint here is a young lady of many other connections who mixes fun with serious effort. She competes successfully in so many ways—even winning an oratorical contest, a part in the Senior Play, offices in a couple of clubs. She is interested and interesting and in what she sets out to do she will be successful.

"One of the greatest pleasures of life is conversation."

MARY CAROL SCHMIDT

As co-editor of the Elmprint this is a really busy young lady. She shows her friendliness to everyone, likes pretty things, changes her mind often, and surprisingly enough, she even puts things off at times. How she accomplishes so much is her secret. We just know that whatever she does is done well.

"Nothing is impossible to a willing heart."

CAROL SIEGEL

Carol is always willing and ready to help anyone. She is embarking on a nursing career and has great aspirations which we know she will live up to. Very logical and interesting, Carol is one of our most friendly seniors.

"Fears are not so black as they are painted."

CARL B. SCHWAB

If you want to know statistics of any sports around the year here is the man who has the answer. He is thinking the Coast Guard will claim him after graduation. The changeable moods he exhibits ought to fit in with his future, as his quiet and careful plans lead him on toward his goal.

"Not talent but yet character."

RONALD SIMMS

This talkative logical lad is vital in any new experience. He would like very much to enter the U. S. Coast Guard where he is sure to display his aggressiveness and friendly nature. Vast unusual experiences may stand before you, but we're sure that you will be the master of them.

"The sweetest roamer is a boy's young heart."

JACK SEKOL

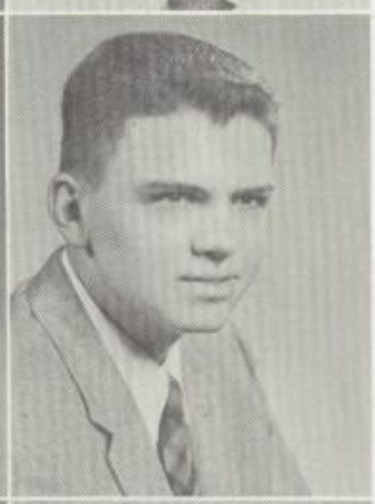
Can a man steer a straight course between his natural sensitiveness and the iron control he puts over all his moods? Here is one who tries it. One of his best traits is his ability to come to a decision, and ever better is his willingness to see the other fellow's point of view.

"A challenge to the end."

TED SIMONS

Ted enjoys people and is always having a good time. He is interested in math and certainly intends to go to college. He strives to do his best and is really ambitious and persistent. Logical, laughing, likeable—that's Ted.

"By blood a king; at heart a clown."



SHEILA JOAN SHAFFER

Here is a cheerful girl, artistic, logical, who wants to be a secretary and has prepared for that. She is reserved and sensitive but cooperative and her friendliness toward everyone has made her the recipient of pleasant sympathetic association with her friends and classmates.

"A rose between thorns."

RUSSEL SINGER

As sports editor of the Elmprint, Russ was on the ball and always there. He intends to become an industrial engineer, a field where he is bound to do well. Russ has many other interests and in each he does equally well. Good fortune to a great classmate.

"To look back is to lose the race."

HAROLD SHINDEL

What an interesting array of hobbies this fellow has; fencing and judo we can't go along on, for naturally he does not go around practising those in school. His other hobbies of drawing, especially, and painting, we can attest to for we see those, and the man is good. If they still are hobbies and he studies forestry we think he will have a very varied life.

"The pen is mightier than the sword."

BARBARA ANN SINGLEY

She wants this and she wants that and she hardly knows what she does want at times. If anyone questions her ambition let us refer you to her many friends and the persistent way she has of planning and then quietly keeping everything to herself. Good luck, lady.

"Words of truth and soberness."

ANN SHOVLIN

Short and cute but long on affectionate friendliness, and a lady who knows her own mind, is this gal. She sticks to a thing and gets on with it with a sort of aggressive vitality that augurs well for future success on land or in the air.

"Wisdom denotes the pursuing of the best ends by the best means."

CAROL SMITH

We point with pride to a young lady who sees her duty and does it. Romantic as she is, artistic and surprisingly practical, she looks straight at the future and lets nothing turn her aside. Young men, take note! Sewing and cooking are her hobbies.

"All depends on circumstances."

DONALD JEFFREY SMITH

Here is a fellow with a really great interest in owning his own shop some day. He can work untiringly toward that end. With care and practice such as this optimist gives so much of we feel he will make it. And his quiet, friendly manner will help toward his success.

"The world wishes to be fooled."

MARY ALICE SMITH

Her real interests are in chatting with her friends, making good marks and aiming toward that big job for the fu ture. She has a host of things she can do well, and lots of imagination. She has an interesting hobby, collecting china dishes, and indeed she can make that into a really worthwhile avocation if she really keeps it up.

"Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb."

ROBERT E. SMITH

Ambition and optimism are twin elements of this man's nature and the aggressive and vital characteristics show in everything he does. Sometimes he is critical of others but he is just as ready to help them. A friendly attitude works both ways.

"Will for him whose will is strong."

N. ROBERT SMITH

Bob is nuts over math and expects someday to teach it to other young people. He is very competitive and extremely amusing and interesting. As of us, his classmates, are certain that he will be a credit to Meyers and that he shall certainly realize the majority of his aspirations.

"So let us be joyful."

WALTER SORRELL

This is a very reserved man with a lot of his little-boy shyness left. He played football and never talked and went out for wrestling and still stayed quiet. What can we do to stir him up? We appreciate his sympathetic ways and that he is interested in facts. And one of the facts is that he won a part in the Senior Play, and did it wonderfully well.

"For words divide and rend; but silence is most noble till the end."

CAROL STAHLEY

A gentle person, reserved and often sensitive, and yet this young lady can talk a lot when you get on one of her favorite subjects. She likes competition and always expects the very best results. We have only the nicest things in the future to offer her.

"Ah, sweet content!"

ANITA STEINER

Since this attractive miss plans to be a teacher we especially commend her ability to show her friendliness and her interest in people. She can stick to anything she undertakes, keep a secret better than most, and when her enthusiasm rises, everyone around her benefits.

"A clear conscience is a sure card."

CATHERINE STEININGER

Oh, those green eyes and all that they see! She takes advantage of her opportunities and will make a good secretary. What a treat it is to discover a tenacious and practiced thinker who can act cautiously on impulse!

"We are not shy; we are very wide awake."

NANCY STUBBS

When anyone plans to be a nurse and gives a practical care and consideration to her preparation for it, as Nancy does, we can prophecy success. She likes people. He sympathetic nature reaches out to her friends and companions.

"Silence is the mother of truth."

FLORANNE THOMA

This outstanding person has interesting hobbies in stamps and coins and has great versatility in other lines. She exercises her imagination and in her many changeable moods offers a variety of characteristics to her friends.

"'Tis a mad world we whirl in."

CAROL ANN THOMAS

It will be a loss to the financial world if this lady does not go into accounting. Facts are important to her and she has such control over her feelings that her intuition has free rein and yet her mind controls her every emotional response.

"A good heart is worth more than gold"

CAROL JEAN THOMAS

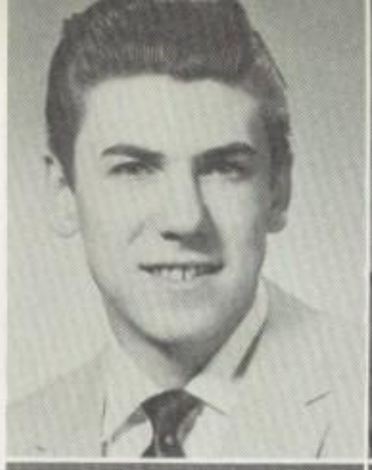
A lady who likes pretty things is so often one whom everyone likes as a person. And this gal is so sympathetic we find ourselves drawn to her, and so careful about everything that we know she will be everything a man could de sire as a private secretary.

"Let me tell the truth."

WILLIAM TOMALINAS

We may describe him as tall and good looking, and even then we have left out the blue eyes, but we noticed them. Don't tell him any tall stories or you may find him believing them and how could explain it? His friendliness just makes him a natural target. He is certainly a fine contribution to the Navy.

"Everything we know of him we like."



SANDRA TUDGAY

Don't let them tease you too much; call up one of those aggressive moments and make a way out. Your interest in people and your excellent understanding of them gives you a really vital reason for your frequent change in mood.

"Every street has two sides."

JUDY TOSH

No one would ever imagine that this gay soul has an intensely practical side. But when she sets out to do a thing, she keeps her plans to herself with ease, and then with sensitive logic she rounds everything up and arrives at a conclusion.

"Full of sweet dreams, and health, and quiet breathing."

MIMI VAS KORLIS

This friendly, attractive lassie is very gregarious and extremely interested in people. Whether on the hockey field or in the classroom Mimi has always striven to do her best. Following college she expects to enter research work where with her interest in essentials and logic she's bound to do well.

"Health and gaiety foster beauty."

NELLIE TOTTEN

To like people, as well as the work she is doing, is one of the best assets anyone can have. The plans for the future are well within her grasp and she looks forward with eagerness to getting ahead; and this lady has such a practical outlook we know success is ahead.

"God helps him who strives hard."

MARY LOU WALBORN

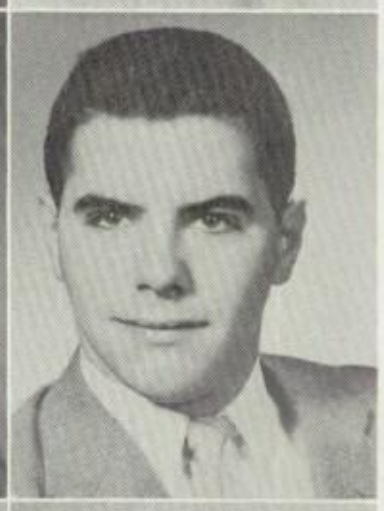
This tall, friendly individual worries most of the time, and we wonder why. She is an artist of no mean ability, and has a variety of other interests includ ing those scholastic. Let's give her the middle name of practical and note with praise that she is sympathetic, affectionate and cooperative too. Success in much is already here.

"The mildest manners with the bravest mind."

DOROTHY TREXLER

When a gal can do everything and do it well indeed, what can a person say about her? Superlatives can only go so far. Her extensive musical abilities have taken her as far as the State Festivals. We are sure of her loyalty and her willingness to help people—a true friend indeed.

"Nothing can cover her high fame but heaven."



DOMINICK WASILEWSKI

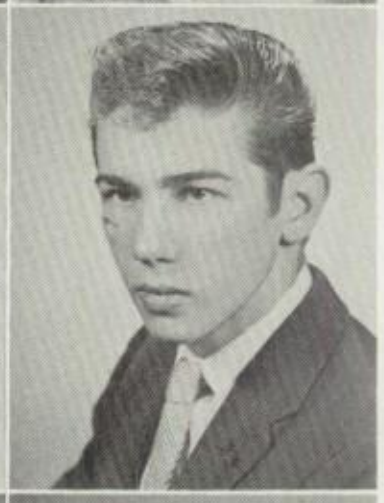
Dom never seems to worry about tomorrow. He is very imaginative and extremely interested in the women. Nevertheless, he is quite logical and is putting his future before pleasure. He likes modern music yet his chief desire is to become an army officer.

"His bark is worse than his bite."

PETER TRUSZKOWSKI

Did you ever know a man who could balance his hearts interests so easily with his head, and face the cold, practical world with reticence and caution, as this one does? The lovely blush we sometimes see is a beauty, and the control the man shows has us all spellbound.

"Every man is the maker of his own fortune."



RICHARD WASILEWSKI

This logical wrestler has such a balance of head and heart that he may very well achieve his goals. Careful, but optimistic, cautious and yet competitive, he has his life well planned. Be it Coast Guard or drafting, we are for it.

"Went in one ear and out the other."

BETSY TUBRIDY

A blond, with green eyes, and President of the Modern Choir is this gal, and many are her other abilities from cheer leader to Amateur Night. She plans to be a school teacher and to charm the elementary pupils. We know that her reticence does not mean she is uninterested, she just has a quiet, sweet way of going about things.

"Rare is the union of beauty and brevity."

SANDRA WEISS

She likes us as we are,—isn't that flattering? For a lady to be so interested in essentials and yet so perceptive we have only commendation. May she always choose wisely, and always control her moods so that her friendliest side may ever be dominant over those secretive moments.

"She in beauty, education, blood, holds hands with any princess of the world."

JAMES WIDMAN

To be both cautious and talkative, both practical and gullible seems as contradictory as this fellow's friendly and yet careful way of life. Interested in facts and plagued by procrastination, his moods change from hot to cold as he tosses a quip to his buddies and acts with a rush.

"For the sake of a joke."

BROOKE YEAGER

The things this man can do are legion. He is president of the Band, and of the Modern Music Masters, and on wrestling and gym teams and in the Honor Society. Busy as he is he will look back upon these days as leisurely, compared to the years facing him to become a doctor.

"Be merry, if you are wise."

WILLIAM WOLFE

This man works with care and has all the details well in mind. In sheet metal he can be an artist, and in contacts with people he can be the most practical fellow ever. Along with his humor, a little determination would have amazing results.

"There is a good time coming."

BARRY YELEN

M Club president, basketball co-captain and honor grades. His mind controls his heart as all the ladies know. In the future we expect his competitive spirit to increase, his optimism to prove itself, and success to pile upon success, and the ultimate goal always to elude him.

"What will be will be."

HARRY WOOD

Brown eyes, red hair, and a quick temper, and with often changeable moods, we recognize his infinite variety. If he is logical and practical, he is also friendly and affectionate, and many more are the fine traits of this fellow, headed first for the Navy and then for an electrical job.

"Better a bad excuse than none at all."

CAROLE YUDISKY

She is so friendly and sees the bright side coming up, and yet worries over it all. Her hopes for the future are practical and she can realize them, and she only lets glimpses of that romantic golden glow she hopes for, appear. We all want to see as much of her as possible,—we feel better when we do.

"From head to heel, a fashion plate."

TRIBUTE

In a special tribute, we wish to salute the Senior Homeroom teachers for the guidance and friendship they have given to us, especially in this, our Senior year. We will cherish among our memories of Meyers High the fond recollections of our homerooms, the studying and clowning together, all working toward the common goal.

Miss Brelsford, we'll always remember your proudly counting "your" students in the various programs and festivities; and Miss Tyburski, your hustle and efficiency are an inspiration to all of us. Mr. Challis, the conferences and discussions we've had in your room are indelibly imprinted. Mr. Donlin, we'll always picture you with your famous "Special Productions" enhancing the walls of 315. Last but by no means least, Mr. McGowan we are sure to recall your notorious "Social Register", the black list.

We remember the little things you have done for us—the long talks, your willing help and advice, your admonitions on report card day, your congratulations for a job well done —. For so many reasons, we the Class of 1958 salute you!

ALMA MATER — Words: Ellen Roberts '32
Music: Mrs. Annette Gilbert Wiggins

ALMA MATER

From hall and class thy students come,
From fields thy warriors bold.
To raise with honor, glory, love,
The royal blue and gold.
So now, to dear old Meyers High,
We proudly stand and sing,
While clear against the azure blue,
Thy honored name we fling.

Chorus

Loud and long
Let us raise the song of glory
As thy banners of truth
Proudly fly.
On through life, in our hearts
We will cherish
Steadfast forever,
Meyers High.

When we must leave thy guiding hand,
To take our place in life.
Then we will keep thy honor clear
Through all our joy and strife.
And when the hand of memory
Rolls back time's gathering haze,
We'll pause once more, as now we do,
To sing again thy praise.

Words by Ellen Roberts '32
Music by Annette Gilbert Wiggins

all the success the world has to offer. Don't forget history

Thelma,
lots of luck and success
to a nice gal who I used to know at Lee Park School in 5th grade.

Love,

(I hope)

Dear Thelma,
Lots of luck ~~&~~ success in your future years at Meyers. I hope I graduate with you.
We were going together for 3 years. and I hope we go together even after we graduate.
Thelma I don't know how to put this letter into words but I want you to know (I love you, always.) This summer I hope we have a lot of fun together. Talking about summer I hope your Mother & Father let you go to New York City with us. If they don't I'll stay home and we'll go out together.
May God Bless you in what ever you do.

Love always,
Carol
